MOTIONS

Guillermo Alvizar-Gonzalez, the defendant in this case, by and through his attorneys, Elizabeth M. Barros, and Federal Defenders of San Diego, Inc., pursuant to the United States Constitution, the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, and all other applicable statutes, laws, case law, and rules, hereby moves this Court for an order:

- 1) compelling production of discovery;
- 2) allowing access to transcript of voir dire and instructions for the July 2007 Grand Jury; and
- 3) granting leave to file further motions.

These motions are based upon the instant motions and notice of motions, the attached statement of facts and memorandum of points and authorities, and any and all other materials that may come to this Court's attention at the time of the hearing on these motions.

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: January 2, 2008

Case No.: 07CR3139-BEN

STATEMENT OF FACTS AND MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES IN SUPPORT OF DEFENDANT'S MOTIONS

I.

STATEMENT OF FACTS<sup>1</sup>

On October 6, 2007, Mr. Alvizar was arrested at the San Ysidro Port of Entry. The government alleges that Mr. Alvizar attempted to enter the United States on that day by presenting a Permanent Resident Card previously issued to him. On or about November 16, 2007, an indictment was filed charging Mr. Alvizar with attempted entry after deportation in violation of 8 U.S.C. § 1326 (a) and (b).

To date, counsel for Mr. Alvizar has received 71 pages of discovery. However, counsel has not yet been given the opportunity to review Mr. Alvizar's A-file. In addition, counsel has not received any recordings of his alleged removal proceedings or a complete record of Mr. Alvizar's alleged criminal history. Specifically, the government alleges that Mr. Alvizar has been previously convicted of violating Cal. Health

<sup>1</sup> This statement of facts is based on the complaint and indictment filed by the government and the discovery provided by the government. Mr. Alvizar does not accept this statement as his own, and reserves the right to take a contrary position at motions and trial.

1 and Safety Code § 11352. The Ninth Circuit has found that a violation of § 11352 is not categorically an
 2 aggravated felony. United States v. Rivera-Sanchez, 247 F.3d 905 (9th Cir. 2001) (en banc). Therefore, a 3 complete record of his alleged prior convictions is necessary to determine whether he qualified for relief from 4 deportation or removal as well as his statutory maximum if convicted.

5 II.

6 MOTION TO COMPEL DISCOVERY/PRESERVE EVIDENCE

7 Defendant moves for the production of the following discovery. This request is not limited to those 8 items that the prosecutor knows of, but rather includes all discovery listed below that is in the custody, control,
 9 care, or knowledge of any "closely related investigative [or other] agencies." See United States v. Bryan, 868
 10 F.2d 1032 (9th Cir. 1989).

11 (1) The Defendant's Statements. The government must disclose to the defendant all copies of any 12 written or recorded statements made by the defendant; the substance of any statements made by the defendant 13 which the government intends to offer in evidence at trial; any response by the defendant to interrogation; the 14 substance of any oral statements which the government intends to introduce at trial and any written summaries
 15 of the defendant's oral statements contained in the handwritten notes of the government agent; any response
 16 to any Miranda warnings which may have been given to the defendant; as well as any other statements by the 17 defendant. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(A) and 16(a)(1)(B). The Advisory Committee Notes and the 1991
 18 amendments to Rule 16 make clear that the Government must reveal all the defendant's statements, whether 19 oral or written, regardless of whether the government intends to make any use of those statements. See also 20 United States v. Bailleaux, 685 F.2d 1105, 1113-1114 (9th Cir. 1982).

21 (2) Arrest Reports, Notes and Dispatch Tapes. Defendant also specifically requests the government
 22 to turn over all arrest reports, notes, dispatch or any other tapes, and TECS records that relate to the 23 circumstances surrounding the defendant's arrest and any questioning. This request includes, but is not 24 limited to, any rough notes, records, reports, transcripts or other documents in which statements of the 25 defendant or any other discoverable material is contained. Such material is discoverable under Fed. R. Crim.
 26 P. 16(a)(1)(A), Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(B), and Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963). The government
 27 must produce arrest reports, investigator's notes, memos from arresting officers, dispatch tapes, sworn 28 statements, and prosecution reports pertaining to the defendant. See Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(E), Fed. R.

1 Crim. P. 26.2, and United States v. Riley, 189 F.3d 802, 806-808 (9th Cir. 1999). Preservation of rough notes
 2 is requested, whether or not the government deems them discoverable.

3 (3) Brady Material. The defendant requests all documents, statements, agents' reports, and tangible 4 evidence favorable to the defendant on the issue of guilt and/or which affects the credibility of the 5 government's case. Under Brady, impeachment as well as exculpatory evidence falls within the definition
 6 of evidence favorable to the accused. United States v. Bagley, 473 U.S. 667 (1985); United States v. Agurs, 7 427 U.S. 97 (1976).

8 (4) Any Information That May Result in a Lower Sentence Under The Guidelines. The government
 9 must produce this information under Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963).

10 (5) The Defendant's Prior Record. The defendant requests disclosure of all alleged prior 11 criminal convictions and law enforcement contacts, if any, including copies of any plea agreement he 12 had with the government, factual basis for the plea and plea colloquy. This information is discoverable
 13 under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(D). It is also discoverable under Fed. R. Crim. P 16(a)(1)(E)(I) because it 14 is material to preparing his defense, specifically, a motion collaterally attacking his alleged 15 deportation/removal.

16 (6) Any Proposed 404(b) Evidence. To the extent that there is any such evidence, the government
 17 must produce evidence of prior similar acts under Fed. R. Evid. 404(b) and "shall provide reasonable notice 18 in advance of trial . . . of the general nature" of any evidence the government proposes to introduce under Fed.
 19 R. Evid. 404(b) at trial. See United States v. Vega, 188 F. 3d 1150, 1154-1155 (9th Cir. 1999). The 20 defendant requests that such notice be given three weeks before trial in order to give the defense time to 21 adequately investigate and prepare for trial.

22 (7) Evidence Seized. The defendant requests production of evidence seized as a result of any search,
 23 either warrantless or with a warrant. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(D).

24 (8) Request for Preservation of Evidence. The defense specifically requests that all dispatch tapes
 25 or any other physical evidence that may be destroyed, lost, or otherwise put out of the possession, custody or 26 care of the government and which relate to the arrest or the events leading to the arrest in this case be 27 preserved.

28 (9) Henthorn Material. The defendant requests that the Assistant United States Attorney ("AUSA")

1 assigned to this case oversee (not personally conduct) a review of all personnel files of each agent involved
 2 in the present case, and produce to him any exculpatory information and impeachment material at least two
 3 weeks prior to trial and one week prior to the motion hearing. See Kyles v. Whitley, 514 U.S. 437, 438 (1995)
 4 (holding that “the individual prosecutor has a duty to learn of any favorable evidence known to the others
 5 acting on the government’s behalf in the case, including the police”); United States v. Henthorn, 931 F.2d 29
 6 (9th Cir. 1991); see also United States v. Jennings, 960 F.2d 1488 (9th Cir. 1992) (AUSA may not be ordered 7 to personally conduct examination of records; appropriate government agency may review files and notify 8 AUSA of contents as long as AUSA makes the determination regarding material to be disclosed); United 9 States v. Herring, 83 F.3d 1120 (9th Cir. 1996) (accord). In addition, the defendant requests that if the 10 government is uncertain whether certain information is to be turned over pursuant to this request, that it
 11 produce such information to the Court in advance of the trial and the motion hearing for an in camera 12 inspection.

13 (10) Tangible Objects. The defendant requests the opportunity to inspect, copy, and test, as necessary, 14 all other documents and tangible objects, including photographs, books, papers, documents, alleged narcotics, 15 fingerprint analyses, vehicles, or copies of portions thereof, which are material to the defense or intended for 16 use in the government’s case-in-chief or were obtained from or belong to the defendant. Fed. R. Crim. P.
 17 16(a)(1)(E). Specifically, defendant requests copies of his immigration file as well as any recordings of 18 his alleged prior removal.

19 (11) Expert Witnesses. Defendant requests the name, qualifications, and a written summary of the 20 testimony of any person that the government intends to call as an expert witness during its case in chief. Fed.
 21 R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(G). Defendant requests the notice of expert testimony be provided at a minimum of two 22 weeks prior to trial so that the defense can properly prepare to address and respond to this testimony, including 23 obtaining its own expert and/or investigating the opinions, credentials of the government’s expert and a 24 hearing in advance of trial to determine the admissibility of qualifications of any expert. See Kumho v.
 25 Carmichael Tire Co., 526 U.S. 137, 119 S.Ct. 1167, 1176 (1999) (trial judge is “gatekeeper” and must 26 determine, reliability and relevancy of expert testimony and such determinations may require “special briefing 27 or other proceedings”).

28 (12) Impeachment Evidence. The defendant requests any evidence that any prospective government

1 witness has engaged in any criminal act whether or not resulting in a conviction and whether any witness has
 2 made a statement favorable to the defendant. See Fed. R. Evid. 608, 609 and 613; Brady v. Maryland, 373
 3 U.S. 83 (1963); United States v. Strifler, 851 F.2d 1197, 1201-1202 (9th Cir. 1988); Thomas v. United States,
 4 343 F.2d 49, 53-54 (9th Cir. 1965).

5 (13) Evidence of Criminal Investigation of Any Government Witness. The defendant requests any 6 evidence that any prospective witness is under investigation by federal, state or local authorities for any 7 criminal conduct.

8 (14) Evidence of Bias or Motive to Lie. Defendant requests any evidence that any prospective
 9 Government witness is biased or prejudiced against Defendant, or has a motive to falsify or distort his or her
 10 testimony. Pennsylvania v. Ritchie, 480 U.S. 39, 57-58 (1987); United States v. Strifler, 851 F.2d 1197, 1201-
 11 1202 (9th Cir. 1988).

12 (15) Evidence Affecting Perception, Recollection, Ability to Communicate, or Truth Telling. The 13 defense requests any evidence, including any medical or psychiatric report or evaluation, that tends to show 14 that any prospective witness' ability to perceive, remember, communicate, or tell the truth is impaired, and 15 any evidence that a witness has ever used narcotics or other controlled substance, or has ever been an 16 alcoholic. See United States v. Strifler, 851 F.2d 1197, 1201-1202 (9th Cir. 1988).

17 (16) Witness Addresses. The defendant requests the name and last known address of each prospective 18 government witness. See United States v. Cook, 608 F.2d 1175, 1181 (9th Cir. 1979) (defense counsel has 19 equal right to talk to witnesses). The defendant also requests the name and last known address of every 20 witness to the crime or crimes charged (or any of the overt acts committed in furtherance thereof) who will 21 not be called as a government witness. United States v. Cadet, 727 F.2d 1453 (9th Cir. 1984).

22 (17) Name of Witnesses Favorable to the Defendant. The defendant requests the name of any witness 23 who made an arguably favorable statement concerning the defendant or who could not identify him or who 24 was unsure of his identity, or participation in the crime charged.

25 (18) Statements Relevant to the Defense. The defendant requests disclosure of any statement relevant 26 to any possible defense or contention that he might assert. United States v. Bailleaux, 685 F.2d 1105 (9th Cir.
 27 1982). This includes all statements by percipient witnesses.

28 (19) Jencks Act Material. The defendant requests production in advance of trial of all material,

1 including dispatch tapes, which the government must produce pursuant to the Jencks Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3500
 2 and Fed. R. Crim. P. 26.2. Advance production will avoid the possibility of delay at trial to allow the 3 defendant to investigate the Jencks material. A verbal acknowledgment that “rough” notes constitute an 4 accurate account of the witness’ interview is sufficient for the report or notes to qualify as a statement under 5 section 3500(e)(1). Campbell v. United States, 373 U.S. 487, 490-92 (1963). In United States v. Boshell, 952
 6 F.2d 1101 (9th Cir. 1991) the Ninth Circuit held that when an agent goes over interview notes with the subject
 7 of the interview the notes are then subject to the Jencks Act. See also United States v. Riley, 189 F.3d 802,
 8 806-808 (9th Cir. 1999). Defendant requests pre-trial disclosure of such statements to avoid unnecessary
 9 recesses and delays for defense counsel to properly use any Jencks statements and prepare for cross-
 10 examination.

11 (20) Giglio Information & Agreements Between the Government and Witnesses. Pursuant to Giglio
 12 v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972), the defendant requests all statements and/or promises, express or 13 implied, made to any witness, in exchange for their testimony in this case, and all other information which 14 could be used for impeachment.

15 (21) Agreements Between the Government and Witnesses. The defendant requests discovery
 16 regarding any express or implicit promise, understanding, offer of immunity, of past, present, or future 17 compensation, or any other kind of agreement or understanding, including any implicit understanding relating 18 to criminal or civil income tax, forfeiture or fine liability, between any prospective government witness and 19 the government (federal, state and/or local). This request also includes any discussion with a potential witness
 20 about or advice concerning any contemplated prosecution, or any possible plea bargain, even if no bargain
 21 was made, or the advice not followed.

22 (22) Informants and Cooperating Witnesses. The defendant requests disclosure of the names and 23 addresses of all informants or cooperating witnesses used or to be used in this case, and in particular,
 24 disclosure of any informant who was a percipient witness in this case or otherwise participated in the crime
 25 charged against the defendant. The government must disclose the informant’s identity and location, as well
 26 as disclose the existence of any other percipient witness unknown or unknowable to the defense. Roviaro v.
 27 United States, 353 U.S. 52, 61-62 (1957). The government must disclose any information derived from 28 informants which exculpates or tends to exculpate the defendant.

2 (23) Bias by Informants or Cooperating Witnesses. The defendant requests disclosure of any 3 information indicating bias on the part of any informant or cooperating witness. Giglio v. United States,
 4 405 U.S. 150 (1972). Such information would include what, if any, inducements, favors, payments or threats 5 were made to the witness to secure cooperation with the authorities.

6 (24) Personnel Records of Government Officers Involved in the Arrest. Defendant requests all citizen
 7 complaints and other related internal affairs documents involving any of the immigration officers or other law
 8 enforcement officers who were involved in the investigation, arrest and interrogation of Defendant. See 9 Pitchess v. Superior Court, 11 Cal. 3d 531, 539 (1974). Because of the sensitive nature of these documents, 10 defense counsel will be unable to procure them from any other source.

11 (25) Training of Relevant Law Enforcement Officers. Defendant requests copies of all written,
 12 videotaped or otherwise recorded policies or training instructions or manuals issued by all law enforcement
 13 agencies involved in the case (United States Customs Service, Border Patrol, DHS, Imperial Beach Sheriff's 14 Department, etc.) to their employees regarding: (1) the informing of suspects of their Constitutional rights;
 15 (2) the questioning of suspects and witnesses.

16 (26) Residual Request. The defendant intends by this discovery motion to invoke his rights to 17 discovery to the fullest extent possible under the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and the Constitution
 18 and laws of the United States. The defendant requests that the government provide him and his attorney with 19 the above requested material sufficiently in advance of trial to avoid unnecessary delay prior to cross-
 20 examination.

21 III.

22 MOTION TO ALLOW ACCESS TO TRANSCRIPT OF VOIR DIRE AND INSTRUCTIONS
 23 GIVEN TO JULY 2007 GRAND JURY

24 Mr. Alvizar respectfully requests that this Court order that the transcript of the voir dire and 25 instructions provided to the July 2007 Grand Jury be unsealed and made available to the defense.

26 The instructions given to a grand jury are not covered by the grand jury secrecy rule: “[t]he 27 proceedings before the grand jury are secret, but the ground rules by which the grand jury conducts those 28 proceedings are not.” See United States v. Alter, 482 F.2d 1016, 1029 n.21 (9th Cir. 1973). Moreover, the

1 voir dire of the prospective grand jurors is not secret because it is not “a matter occurring before the grand
 2 jury.” See Fed. R. Crim. P. 6(e)(2)(B). There is no grand jury until one is sworn, thus, the voir dire of a
 3 venire of prospective grand jurors cannot possibly be covered by Rule 6(e)(2)(B). Because the voir dire is 4 not “a matter occurring before the grand jury,” a court reporter may not be required to keep it secret. See id.,
 5 Rule 6(e)(2)(A), (B)(iii).

6 Finally, the standard set forth in In re Special Grand Jury (For Anchorage, Alaska), 674 F.2d 778, 781
 7 (9th Cir. 1982) for determining grand jury secrecy requires disclosure. Special Grand Jury holds that 8 members of the public have a right, ..., subject to the rule of grand jury secrecy, of access to 9 the ministerial records in the files of the district court having jurisdiction of the grand jury.
 Absent specific and substantial reasons for a refusal, such access should not be denied.

10 See Special Grand Jury, 674 F.2d at 781. “Ministerial” records “generally relate to the procedural aspects of 11 the empaneling and operation of the Special Grand Jury, as opposed to records which relate to the substance
 12 of the Special Grand Jury’s investigation.” See id. at 779 n.1. See also In re Grand Jury Proceedings, Special 13 Grand Jury 89-2 (Rocky Flats Grand Jury), 813 F. Supp. 1451, 1469 (D. Colo. 1993) (“An instructive standard

14 [in determining whether to reveal grand jury records], is whether the disclosed information would reveal the 15 substance or essence of the grand jury’s investigation or deliberations.”). The records requested here relate

16 only to the selection process, not “to the substance of the ... Grand Jury’s investigation.” See id. at 779 n.1.

17 They are not secret.<sup>2</sup>

18 In short, because the voir dire is linked with the instructions to which Mr. Alvizar is entitled as a 19 matter of right, the transcript must be made available. See Alter, 482 F.2d at 1029 n.21. In addition, the voir
 20 dire is neither secret under Rule 6 nor can it be withheld under Special Grand Jury, which permits disclosure
 21 of information that does not “relate to the substance of the ... Grand Jury’s investigation.” See 674 F.2d at 22 779 n.1.

24 //

25
 26 <sup>2</sup> Special Grand Jury suggested, but did not hold, that the names of the grand jurors may 27 be secret. See 674 F.2d at 782 & n.4. Mr. Alvizar disagrees; petit jurors are named publicly, and they perform their duties nonetheless. Nothing in Rule 6 supports a non-disclosure rule.
 28 Moreover, redacting the names would potentially make the transcript unintelligible. If the Court disagrees, however, it could order the court reporter to produce the transcript and substitute numbers or letters for the prospective grand jurors’ names.

2 IV.

3 MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE ADDITIONAL MOTIONS

4 Defense counsel has incomplete discovery at this time, and contemplates further motions once
5 discovery is received and reviewed with Mr. Alvizar. Therefore, counsel requests leave to file additional 6 motions once discovery is completed.

7 V.

8 CONCLUSION

9 For the foregoing reasons, Mr. Alvizar respectfully requests that this Court grant the above requested 10 motions and leave to file further motions.
